THE NATIONAL SHRINE OF SAINT ELIZABETH ANN SETON

Wife, mother, widow, sole parent, convert, foundress, educator, social minister, and spiritual leader... Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton is truly a saint for our times. The first native-born canonized saint in the United States, she founded the Sisters of Charity of Saint Joseph's.
She also began Saint Joseph's Academy and Free School for girls in Emmitsburg, which was the precursor of the American parochial school system. The legacy that she left includes six religious communities who serve in schools, social ministries, and hospitals throughout the Americas and Korea. She was canonized on September 14, 1975.

The Shrine is located in Emmitsburg, Maryland, a small historic town in the foothills of the beautiful Catoctin Mountains. This was the home of Mother Seton from 1809 until her death in 1821, and her remains are entombed under her altar in the basilica. Pilgrims come here throughout the year to learn about her life, discover the depths of her faithfulness, and walk meditatively in her footsteps.

"We must pray literally without ceasing, I mean that prayer of the heart which is independent of time and place, which is rather a habit of lifting up the heart to God, as in a constant communication with him."

- Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton
