You can honor and remember your loved one on the grounds where Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton lived, walked, and left a legacy.

“ALL THIS AND HEAVEN TOO!”

—Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton

The Seton Shrine's Legacy Garden offers a beautiful place of prayer and reflection for the Shrine's many visitors.

Located between the Stone House, Mother Seton's first permanent home in the valley, and the Mortuary Chapel Cemetery where she buried her departed Sisters, as well as three of her own children, the Seton Legacy Garden beautifies the grounds where Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton, lived, walked, and prayed. We invite you to honor or memorialize a loved one with a special tribute in the Seton Legacy Garden. In so doing, you can walk in prayer with Mother Seton.

By honoring a loved one in the Seton Legacy Garden, you support the work of the National Shrine of Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton as we share her inspirational story. Your supports helps to ensure the legacy of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton can be shared with future generations seeking love and guidance from a Saint who truly understands the trials, joys, and sorrows of everyday life.

“DEVOTION MUST CARRY THE TORCH AND OPEN THE DOOR TO ALL ACTIONS.”

—Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton
