Can you find all of the items below? Schedule a zoom tour, watch our pre-recorded tour on youtube, or come find them by visiting the Shrine!

- Catharine's, Mother Seton's daughter, cross-stitch. Student began lessons as young as five years old.
- Piano-forte- period instrument which had a wood frame and lighter strings. It also provided a somewhat mellower sound.
- A certificate- like the one Sisters would give to students trying to achieve a goal. Catherine earned one for being quiet during class.
- A slate- the students would have used these to copy lessons. What do you use?
- The Redeemer picture that Mother Seton's husband gave to her on their wedding day.
- The little plaque that shows where Mother liked to kneel during Mass.
- The laptop desk that belonged to Mother - be careful not to open as it is very old.
- The chamber pot - a bowl kept in a bedroom to use as a bathroom at night.
